PART II—Section 3Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministries of the Government of India (other than the Ministry of Defence) and Central Authorities (other than the Chief Commissioners).MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRSNew Delhi, the 17th April 1952

S.R.O. 709.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 549 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898 (V of 1898), and in supersession of all previous notifications on the subject, the Central Government hereby makes the following rules for the trial of persons subject to military, naval or Air Force law, by a court to which the said Code applies, or by a court-martial, namely:—

1. (1) These Rules, may be called the Criminal Courts and Court-Martial (Adjustment of Jurisdiction) Rules, 1952.

(2) They extend to the whole of India except the States of Jammu and Kashmir and Manipur.

2. In these Rules unless the context otherwise requires—

(i) "Commanding Officer":

(a) in relation to a person subject to military law means the Officer Commanding the unit or detachment to which such person belongs or is attached,

(b) in relation to a person subject to naval law means the Commanding Officer of the ship to which such person for the time being belongs; and

(c) in relation to a person subject to Air Force law means the officer for the time being in command of the unit or detachment to which such person belongs or is attached.

(ii) "competent military authority" means the Officer Commanding the army, army corps, division, area, corps or independent brigade or sub area in which the accused person is serving and [except in cases falling under section 69 of the Army Act, 1950 (XLVI of 1950)] where death has resulted, the Officer Commanding the brigade or sub area or station in which the accused person is serving.

(iii) "competent naval authority" means the Commander-in-Chief Indian Navy, or Rear Admiral Commanding, Indian Naval Squadron, or Commodore-in-Charge, Bombay, or Commodore-in-Charge, Cochin, or Naval Officers-in-Charge, or Senior Naval Officer present; and

(iv) "competent Air Force authority" means the officer commanding the command, wing or station in which the accused person is serving, and when death has resulted [except in cases falling under section 72 of the Air Force Act, 1950 (XLV of 1950)] the Commander-in-Chief, Air Force".

3. Where a person subject to military, naval or Air Force law is brought before a Magistrate and charged with an offence for which he is liable to be tried by a court-martial, such Magistrate shall not proceed to try such person or to issue orders for his case to be referred to a Bench, or to inquire with a view to his commitment for trial by the Court of Sessions or the High Court for any offence triable by such Court, unless

(a) he is of opinion, for reasons to be recorded, that he should so proceed without being moved thereto by competent military, naval or Air Force authority, or

(b) he is moved thereto by such authority.

4. Before proceeding under clause (a) of rule 3 the Magistrate shall give written notice to the Commanding Officer of the accused and until the expiry of a period of seven days from the date of the service of such notice he shall not—

(a) convict or acquit the accused under sections 243, 245, 247 or 248 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), or hear him in his defence under section 244 of the said code; or

(b) frame in writing a charge against the accused under section 254 of the said Code; or

(c) make an order committing the accused for trial by the High Court or the Court of Sessions under section 213 of the said Code.

5. Where within the period of seven days mentioned in rule 4, or at any time thereafter before the Magistrate has done any act or issued any order referred to in that rule, the Commanding Officer of the accused or competent military, naval or Air Force authority, as the case may be, gives notice to the Magistrate that in the opinion of such authority, the accused should be tried by a court-martial, the Magistrate shall stay proceedings and if the accused is in his power or under his control, shall deliver him, with the statement prescribed in sub-section (1) of section 549 of the said Code to the authority specified in the said sub-section.

6. Where a Magistrate has been moved by competent military, naval or Air Force authority, as the case may be, under clause (b) of rule 3, and the Commanding Officer of the accused or competent military, naval or Air Force authority, as the case may be, subsequently gives notice to such Magistrate that, in the opinion of such authority, the accused should be tried by a court-martial, such Magistrate, if he has not before receiving such notice done any act or issued any order referred to in rule 4, shall stay proceedings and, if the accused is in his power or under his control, shall in the like manner deliver him, with the statement prescribed in sub-section (1) of section 549 of the said Code to the authority specified in the said sub-section.

7. Where an accused person, having been delivered by the Magistrate under rule 5 or 6, is not tried by a court-martial for the offence of which he is accused, or other effectual proceedings are not taken, or ordered to be taken, against him, the Magistrate shall report the circumstance to the State Government which may, in consultation with the Central Government, take appropriate steps to ensure that the accused person is dealt with in accordance with law.

8. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing rules, where it comes to the notice of a Magistrate that a person subject to military, naval or Air Force law has committed an offence, proceedings in respect of which ought to be instituted before him and that the presence of such person cannot be procured unless through military, naval or Air Force authorities, the Magistrate may by a written notice require the Commanding Officer of such person either to deliver such person to a Magistrate to be named in the said notice for being proceeded against according to law, or to stay the proceedings against such person before the court-martial, if since instituted, and to make a reference to the Central Government for determination as to the Court before which proceedings should be instituted.

9. Where a person subject to military, naval or Air Force law has committed an offence which, in the opinion of competent military, naval or Air Force authority, as the case may be, ought to be tried by a Magistrate in accordance with the civil law in force or where the Central Government has, on a reference mentioned in rule 8, decided that proceedings against such person should be instituted before a Magistrate, the Commanding Officer of such person shall after giving a written notice to the Magistrate concerned, deliver such person under proper escort to that Magistrate.
